Warwick Pye announced as new General Manager of Sales

PIPE Networks Limited (ASX:PWK) today announced the appointment of Warwick Pye to the position of General Manager of Sales. Mr Pye brings to the Company a wealth of experience and success from in excess of twenty-three years working within the telecommunications industry. After starting his career with Telecom Australia in 1984, he has gained experience in senior positions within the domestic and international growth areas of large telecommunication companies including Telstra, Comindico and Soul Telecom. He will be tasked with further driving the sales growth of the Company and contributing to the ongoing success that has been a hallmark of PIPE Networks.

“I am delighted to have Warwick join our team. He is a highly regarded operator with a wealth of knowledge, respect and success in the telecommunications industry” said PIPE Networks CEO, Mr Bevan Slattery.

Mr Pye’s appointment comes with the impending departure of Matt Hollis from the position. Mr Hollis will remain until June 30 to assist Mr Pye’s transition to the new role. Mr Hollis will be leaving PIPE Networks to pursue new ventures and the Board of Directors thank Matt for his contribution to PIPE Networks since joining the Company in 2004, and wish him the very best in all of his future endeavours.
